Presentation Formats and Topics

Various presentation formats are welcome: Lecture, Lecture-Recital, Recital (solo, piano duo/duet, chamber group), Masterclass, Demonstration. Conference is interested in a variety of areas: Performance, Teaching, Performance Practice, Composition, Music Technology, Music Administration, New Music, Music Theory and Analysis.

While it is expected that some presenters may choose topics related to various composers' anniversaries, the WPC does not impose any specific Conference Subject. Passive attendants are welcome.

In Absentia Presenting

If you would like your presentation to be heard at the WPC, but cannot attend the conference in person, you can opt for an "in absentia" presentation by sending us a prerecorded presentation. We accept CDs, DVDs, PowerPoints, standard texts (to be read by our speaker) or any other standard in absentia format to be included in the Conference program.

Masterclasses

Masterclass formats:

Public Masterclass – an official/public WPC presentation in the form of a masterclass, held in the concert hall, before an audience

Special WPC Masterclass – masterclass held in a studio/classroom, intended for WPC presenters to engage in pedagogical contact with local piano students. This program was created due to a popular demand by WPC presenters, in order for them to meet local piano students and teachers.

Students and Young Pianists at the WPC

Young Concert Platform (YCP) and Amateur's Concert Podium (ACP)

YCP and ACP are events designed for piano students and young pianists, as well as for amateurs, providing them with concert platform for their performances and advancement.

WPC Masterclass

Daily public and private one-on-one masterclass tuition, presented by some of the world's greatest pianists and piano teachers.

Services

Practicing is organized for all participants. Special events, such as sight-seeing and banquet are held during WPC.
